NOW COMES Alice Carmichael Richey, the below-signed Attorney of Record (“Practitioner”) for Registrant DLR Associates, Inc. (“Client”), in the above-captioned action and respectfully moves the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (“TTAB”), pursuant to USPTO Ethical Rules 10.40 (b) – (c), 37 C.F.R. Section 10.40 (b) – (c) and TBMP Section 513.01 for an Order allowing said Practitioner to withdraw from this action. As grounds for this Motion, the undersigned represents to the TTAB that:

1. The Client has failed substantially to fulfill an obligation to the Practitioner regarding the Practitioner’s services and has been given reasonable warning that the Practitioner will withdraw unless the obligation is fulfilled. In particular, the Client has failed to meet its contractual obligations to Practitioner pursuant to the Engagement Letter entered into between Client and Practitioner on May 16, 2013;

2. The Practitioner has given notice to the Client that she intends to withdraw and has allowed time for the employment of new counsel;

3. The Practitioner has delivered to the client all documents and property in the Practitioner's file concerning the proceeding to which the Client is entitled;

4. The Practitioner has notified the Client of any responses that may be due and of the deadline for response;

5. Any unearned part of any fees paid in advance has been refunded to Client; and

6. Proof of service upon the Client and the other parties in this proceeding is shown on the attached Certificate of Service dated the 2nd day of December, 2013.

Respectfully submitted this 2nd day of December, 2013.
